Dear SPSA conference participants,

Welcome to the 2019 meeting of the Southern Political Science Association (SPSA).
We are glad you are here!

This is the 90th annual meeting of the SPSA, one of the most diverse and robust meetings in political science. Scholars come to this meeting from all over the world, attracted by the quality of the work, diversity of the scholars and research, and creative formats. We strive to create an intellectually rich conference that provides formal and informal networking and mentoring opportunities for younger scholars and is also family friendly.

There is something for everyone at this conference! SPSA Vice-President and Program Christopher Wlezien and his Program Committee have put together an excellent program, including 39 organized sections and 435+ panels. You might be interested in attending one of our 13 conferences-within-the-conference. These mini-conferences are organized around specific topics such as Political Attitudes and Behavior in China or Medieval Political Theory. Each conference-within-a-conference includes a series of panels scheduled sequentially to allow ongoing conversations and a deeper dive into important topics.

Reserve time in your schedule for a number of special events. On Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m., the Department of Radio-Television-Film at the University of Texas at Austin, under the guidance of Dr. Paul Stekler, is presenting a Film Event: Postcards from the Great Divide. It will run concurrently with the Welcome Reception. The Annual Business Meeting and Awards Presentation will begin at 11 am on Friday, January 18. My SPSA Presidential Address will begin Friday evening at 6:30 p.m. with a reception immediately following. For the second year, we will be having a finale reception. This year we will gather at Cooper's Pit BBQ at 217 Congress Ave starting at 7:30 p.m. This event will feature traditional Texas BBQ and is an easy walk from the hotel.

During your stay in Austin, also make sure to spend time exploring the city's rich cultural, historical, musical, and culinary offerings. It is a great city! Why not come for the conference and spend a few extra days?

Finally, let me invite you to use the meeting as a gateway into membership in the SPSA. We exist to promote interest, research and teaching in theoretical and practical political problems and we are proud to publish the Journal of Politics. The association is comprised of more than 1,300 members and a large number are involved in SPSA governance and professional work. Join us!

Thank you for participating in the 2019 SPSA annual Meeting. I know you will have a great experience combining work and pleasure. I look forward to seeing all of you around the conference.

David E. Lewis
SPSA President

January 16, 2019

Dear Southern Political Science Association Conference Attendees,

Welcome to Austin and thank you for choosing Austin to host your SPSA 2019 Annual Meeting!

Austin continues to be a special city where great ideas come to life. As you might already know, Willie Nelson came here to reinvent country music. Michael Dell reinvented the assembly line in his dorm room at the University of Texas. And John Mackey reinvented what grocery stores can be – all right here in Austin. Great ideas are created when people from all walks of life come together, and that's what I hope will happen at your meeting this year.

While you are here, I encourage you to experience all that Austin has to offer. We are the Live Music Capital of the World! I encourage you to visit our parks, open air venues, restaurants, Lady Bird Lake hike and bike trail, and the many entertainment venues in Austin that are within just a few blocks of your hotel. You may also enjoy exploring our many districts including, Sixth Street, Rainey Street District, Downtown (the home of Austin City Limits stage), and the Market District. Once again, we hope you all have a great time and learn why Austin is a favorite national and international destination.

Again, thank you for choosing Austin for your annual meeting and enjoy your stay!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Steve Adler".

Steve Adler
Mayor

SPSA Standards of Professional Conduct and Anti-harassment Policy

---

The Southern Political Science Association is committed to promoting a culture of professionalism at its annual Conference and building an ethos that supports networking and mentoring among the Membership. A primary mission of the Association is to maintain standards of respect between persons engaged in the professional study and practice of government and politics. Harassment and other forms of unprofessional conduct undermine this mission and the principles upon which the Association was founded thus constitute serious violations of association policy.

1. Purpose.

The following Professional Conduct and Anti-harassment Policy describes the Association's expectations for all who attend or participate in the SPSA annual Conference. It is modeled after policies of other associations with whom we share common purpose in promoting a welcoming, inclusive, respectful, and safe environment that supports the free exchange of ideas. "Participant" in this policy includes anyone present at the SPSA or its sponsored events including staff, Association leadership, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, SPSA Members, guests, and all other participants.

2. Expected Behavior.

All participants at the SPSA meetings and related events are expected to abide by this professional conduct policy in all meeting venues including ancillary events and official and unofficial social gatherings. This includes the following:

Adhering to the norms of treating all with dignity and professional respect to promote conditions conducive to free academic exchange

Agreeing to alert security personnel and relevant SPSA staff if a situation arises where someone is in imminent danger.

3. Unacceptable Behavior.

Behaviors that violate the Professional Conduct Policy include, but are not limited to the following:

- Actions that cause physical assault or harm (including unwelcome touch or groping)
- Threats or actions that threaten physical harm
- Threats or actions that cause or threaten professional harm, punishment, or retaliation
- Intimidating, harassing, abusive, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions by any participant at any SPSA meeting or related event
- Prejudicial actions or comments that coerce others, foment broad hostility or otherwise undermine professional equity or the principles of free academic exchange
- Unwelcome solicitation of emotional or physical intimacy
- Deliberate intimidation, stalking or following
- Harassing photography or recording
- Sustained, unprofessional disruption of panels, talks, or other SPSA related events
- Other intentionally disruptive behavior

RESTAURANTS

Please take a look at these special recommendations!

---

Part 1: the locals

---

Bethany Albertson, UT Austin recommends:

- 1. Ramen Tatsu-ya, 1600 E. 6th Street (also, 1234 S Lamar & 8557 Research Blvd.)
My favorite ramen in Austin - there's often a line, but there's a good reason for that. The original is my favorite, but there are spicy and veggie options as well.
- 2. Suerte, 1800 E 6th Street
They make their own masa and it's featured heavily throughout the menu. This just opened in March so make a reservation if you can.
- 3. Easy Tiger, 709 E. 6th Street
Fresh bread, lots of beers on tap and a nice outdoor space if the weather is cooperating. They have good pastries in the morning and soft pretzels throughout the day.

Jooyoun Lee, St. Edward's University recommends:

- 1. La Condesa, 400 W. 2nd Street
You can enjoy modern Mexican cuisine including tex-mex in a bright and lively setting. <https://lacondesa.com>
- 2. Fukumoto, 514 Medina Street
Modern Izakaya style Japanese restaurant that provides a variety of sushi and yakitori at the same time. <http://www.fukumotoaustin.com>
- 3. Eddie V, 301 E. 5th Street
This is a high-end seafood restaurant where you can enjoy great food and excellent service. <https://www.eddiev.com/locations/tx/austin/austin-5th-street/8501>

Kristie Kelly, Austin Community College recommends:

- 1. ThunderCloud Subs, 360 Nueces St, Ste 80
Locally-owned sandwich shop with good vegetarian options (the Nada Chicken sandwich is an excellent choice for both meat eaters and non-meat eaters alike)
- 2. Flower Child, 500 W. 2nd St.
This is a national chain, but is one of the best places downtown to find fast and casual healthier meals. But "healthier" doesn't mean the food isn't delicious—their salads and grain bowls are filling, and absolutely packed with flavor. Lots of paleo, vegetarian, and vegan options here as well.
- 3. ATX Cocina, 110 San Antonio St.
Their entrees can be very pricey, but everything here is absolutely delicious (and gluten free, I believe). I'd suggest hitting happy hour—they serve good cocktails, but their happy hour food menu fantastic (served in the lounge and on the patio only). Even if you miss happy hour, their appetizers are very large and meant to be shared, but could also be a full meal for a solo diner. The oxtail quesadilla is to die for.

Robert Ceresa, Huston-Tillotson University recommends:

- 1. Marcelino Pan y Vino, 901 Tillery Street
The best breakfast taco and other tasty plates that I know of in town. But they stop serving around 1 pm each afternoon.

Part 2: Austin specialties

---

1. BBQ:

- Franklin's, 900 E. 11th. Obama cut the line. You cannot.
- Iron Works, 100 Red River St.
- La Barbecue, 2727 E. Cesar Chavez St.
- Stubb's Bar-B-Q, 801 Red River St.

2. Breakfast Tacos:

- El Chilito, 1623 E. 7th Street
- Torchy's, 1822 S. Congress Ave.
- Tyson's Tacos, 4905 Airport Blvd.

---

Part 3: additional drinking/dining ideas

---

- 1. Fareground, 111 Congress (right next to the hotel)
local restaurants, picnic area

- 2. Rainey Street, (south of Cesar Chavez)
lots of bars, food trucks and more.

WOMEN

WHO ARE WE?

SPSA Women was formed in 1960; we have been advocating for women in political science since then. We welcome participation from everyone regardless of gender identification.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Our mission:

- ➔ Increase the visibility of women in political science
- ➔ Provide a forum for advice on successful careers
- ➔ Promote women's research
- ➔ Present the Erika Fairchild Award every two years
- ➔ Administer the Betty Glad Legal Defense Fund to help women who believe they have been victims of discriminatory conduct or conditions.
- ➔ Offer a conference within a conference to help achieve our goals

MINI- CONFERENCES

In 2019 the SPSA continues the innovation introduced seven years ago of hosting extended discussions organized around a single theme. These mini-conferences offer the opportunity for a small community of scholars to set aside time together within the larger meeting. A room is set aside for the time requested, in which between 3 and 8 regular sessions occur in succession. Whether these sessions are scheduled on a single day or straddle two days depends on the preferences of the organizer. Some are stand-alone sessions, while others are integrated with their related research section.

If you are interested in organizing a mini-conference to be held in conjunction with the 2020 SPSA meeting, contact Marc Hetherington (the 2020 Program Chair).

3606*Author Meets Critics: Michael Haas, "Political Science Revitalized"FridayPolitical Theory

3:30 p.m.-4:50 p.m.

"Political Science Revitalized" is a history of political science, focusing on paradigms that have been proposed over more than a century. The book at the same time is a critique of the discipline for currently ignoring paradigms yet being filled with studies that are disconnected because they do not connect with paradigms.

The Religious Engagement in Democratic Politics series, edited by Paul A. Djupe, collects work that explores in theoretically and empirically rigorous ways variations in and determinants of religious presence in the politics of democratic nations—from those with a long history of institutionalized democracy to those struggling to establish free, contested elections and systems of rights and liberties. Books in the series demonstrate application of one or more of a variety of quantitative and qualitative methodologies to explore the robust and highly variable presence of religion in democracies.

Prospective authors should contact:
series editor Paul Djupe djupe@denison.edu or Senior Editor Aaron Javscas aaron.javscas@temple.edu to discuss their work in progress for inclusion in the series.

Primary Sources in Political Thought

For over four decades, Liberty Fund has made available some of the finest books in history, politics, philosophy, law, education, and economics—books of enduring value that have helped to shape ideas and events in humanity's quest for liberty, order, and justice.

Exploring the Bounds of Liberty

Political Writings of Colonial British America from the Glorious Revolution to the American Revolution

Edited and with an Introduction by Jack P. Greene and Craig B. Yirush

Exploring the Bounds of Liberty is an ideal introduction to the rich, hitherto only lightly examined literature produced in and about the British colonies between 1680 and 1770. It provides easy access to key but little-discussed political writings, illuminating important political debates in the early-modern British empire and giving crucial context for much better-known tracts of the American Revolution.

Our print and ebooks are edited and translated by world-renowned scholars who bring to the task the expertise these works deserve. Introductions and forewords provide noninterpretive context; annotations, bibliographies, and other supplementary apparatus further support the text.
