Dear SPSA conference participants,

Welcome to the 2020 meeting of the Southern Political Science Association (SPSA) here in San Juan Puerto Rico. This is the 91st annual meeting of the SPSA, which is one of the most diverse and welcoming meetings in political science. Attendees come from all over the world to share their research, learn about new Developments in the field, and enjoy the company of other scholars in a rich inviting location. We work hard to ensure that the conference is intellectually reward, supportive of junior scholars, and family friendly.

There is something for everyone at this conference! SPSA Vice-President and Program Marc Hetherington and his Program Committee have put together an outstanding Program, including 38 organized sections and 435 panels. You might be interested in attending one of our 16 conferences-within-the-conference. These mini-conferences are organized around specific topics of interest organized by scholars contributing to that area. Each conference-within-a-conference includes a series of panels scheduled sequentially to allow ongoing conversations and a deeper dive into important topics.

Reserve time in your schedule for a number of special events. The Pi Sigma Alpha Address will begin at 6:30 pm on Thursday evening with the Welcome Reception immediately following. Eduardo G amarra, PhD from Florida International University is the featured speaker. The Annual Business Meeting and Awards Presentation will begin at 11 am on Friday, January 10 with a reception immediately following. My SPSA Presidential Address will begin Friday evening at 6:30 pm with a reception immediately following. For the fourth year, we will be having a finale reception. This year we will gather on the beach for the Rums of Puerto Rico Finale Reception from 6:30 to 8:30 pm.

During your stay in San Juan, also make sure to spend time exploring the city's rich cultural, historical, musical, and culinary offerings. Puerto Rico provides such a wonderful location for tourism, relaxing, exploring the city and countryside, or just going to political science panels. Why not come early for the conference and spend a few extra days? The Spring semester will arrive all too soon in January.

Finally, let me invite you to use the meeting as a gateway into membership in the SPSA. We exist to promote interest, research and teaching in theoretical and practical political problems and we are proud to publish the Journal of Politics. The association is comprised of more than 1,500 members and a large number are involved in SPSA governance and professional work. Join us!

Thank you for participating in the 2020 SPSA annual Meeting. I'm sure you will have a great experience combining work and pleasure in this great locale. I look forward to seeing all of you around the conference.

Jeff Gill
SPSA President

SPSA Standards of Professional Conduct and Anti-harassment Policy

The Southern Political Science Association is committed to promoting a culture of professionalism at its annual Conference and building an ethos that supports networking and mentoring among the Membership. A primary mission of the Association is to maintain standards of respect between persons engaged in the professional study and practice of government and politics. Harassment and other forms of unprofessional conduct undermine this mission and the principles upon which the Association was founded thus constitute serious violations of association policy.

1. Purpose.

The following Professional Conduct and Anti-harassment Policy describes the Association's expectations for all who attend or participate in the SPSA annual Conference. It is modeled after policies of other associations with whom we share common purpose in promoting a welcoming, inclusive, respectful, and safe environment that supports the free exchange of ideas. "Participant" in this policy includes anyone present at the SPSA or its sponsored events including staff, Association leadership, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, SPSA Members, guests, and all other participants.

2. Expected Behavior.

All participants at the SPSA meetings and related events are expected to abide by this professional conduct policy in all meeting venues including ancillary events and official and unofficial social gatherings. This includes the following:

Adhering to the norms of treating all with dignity and professional respect to promote conditions conducive to free academic exchange

Agreeing to alert security personnel and relevant SPSA staff if a situation arises where someone is in imminent danger.

3. Unacceptable Behavior.

Behaviors that violate the Professional Conduct Policy include, but are not limited to the following:

- Actions that cause physical assault or harm (including unwelcome touch or groping)
- Threats or actions that threaten physical harm
- Threats or actions that cause or threaten professional harm, punishment, or retaliation
- Intimidating, harassing, abusive, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions by any participant at any SPSA meeting or related event
- Prejudicial actions or comments that coerce others, foment broad hostility or otherwise undermine professional equity or the principles of free academic exchange
- Unwelcome solicitation of emotional or physical intimacy
- Deliberate intimidation, stalking or following
- Harassing photography or recording
- Sustained, unprofessional disruption of panels, talks, or other SPSA related events
- Other intentionally disruptive behavior

Reporting Unprofessional Behavior - Meet the SPSA Ombud

The SPSA is committed to the highest standards of professional behavior. Our conduct policy can be found here: <https://spsa.net/resources/professional-conduct/>

If you have been subjected to harassment or other unprofessional behavior during the Annual Conference, we urge you to contact the SPSA Ombud or the professional staff of the SPSA.

Ombud - Carol Mershon, University of Virginia

Carol Mershon, Ph.D., is Professor of Politics at the University of Virginia. She has served as Interim Co-PI / Program Director for UVA CHARGE, the NSF ADVANCE Program at UVA, and also served on the UVA CHARGE Internal Advisory Board. A founding member of the Steering Committee of the Directors of Diversity and Inclusion in UVA Arts & Sciences, Mershon helped spearhead the creation of the pilot UVA Arts & Sciences Faculty Guides Program, designed to handle concerns about, e.g., harassment, conflicts of interest, and equity. In her most recent NSF-funded project, with Denise Walsh, Mershon has developed strategies for diversifying leadership and addressing bias in political science and academe more broadly. In Fall 2019 she was invited to serve as Co-Chair of the APSA Presidential Task Force on Examining Issues and Mechanisms of Systemic Inequality in the Discipline.

Contacting the Ombud

Please contact the SPSA ombud via email at spsaombuds@gmail.com.

The SPSA Ombud will be available online and on-site during the 2020 SPSA Annual Meeting to speak with you on your concerns of violations of the SPSA Standards of Professional Conduct, and the methods for reporting such concerns.

Contacting the SPSA Professional Staff:

If you prefer to receive guidance for making your report, you can contact:

- SPSA Executive Director, Dr. Robert Howard, rhoward@gsu.edu
- Operations Manager, Patricia Brown, spsa.finance@spsa.net

These email accounts are secure. Your confidentiality will be maintained.

IOA STANDARDS OF PRACTICE

PREAMBLE

The IOA Standards of Practice are based upon and derived from the ethical principles stated in the IOA Code of Ethics.

Each Ombudsman office should have an organizational Charter or Terms of Reference, approved by senior management, articulating the principles of the Ombudsman function in that organization and their consistency with the IOA Standards of Practice.

STANDARDS OF PRACTICE

INDEPENDENCE

- 1.1 The Ombudsman Office and the Ombudsman are independent from other organizational entities.
- 1.2 The Ombudsman holds no other position within the organization which might compromise independence.
- 1.3 The Ombudsman exercises sole discretion over whether or how to act regarding an individual's concern, a trend or concerns of multiple individuals over time. The Ombudsman may also initiate action on a concern identified through the Ombudsman's direct observation.
- 1.4 The Ombudsman has access to all information and all individuals in the organization, as permitted by law.
- 1.5 The Ombudsman has authority to select Ombudsman Office staff and manage Ombudsman Office budget and operations.

NEUTRALITY AND IMPARTIALITY

- 2.1 The Ombudsman is neutral, impartial, and unaligned.
- 2.2 The Ombudsman strives for impartiality, fairness and objectivity in the treatment of people and the consideration of issues. The Ombudsman advocates for fair and equitably administered processes and does not advocate on behalf of any individual within the organization.
- 2.3 The Ombudsman is a designated neutral reporting to the highest possible level of the organization and operating independent of ordinary line and staff structures. The Ombudsman should not report to nor be structurally affiliated with any compliance function of the organization.
- 2.4 The Ombudsman serves in no additional role within the organization which would compromise the Ombudsman's neutrality. The Ombudsman should not be aligned with any formal or informal associations within the organization in a way that might create actual or perceived conflicts of interest for the Ombudsman. The Ombudsman should have no personal interest or stake in, and incur no gain or loss from, the outcome of an issue.
- 2.5 The Ombudsman has a responsibility to consider the legitimate concerns and interests of all individuals affected by the matter under consideration.
- 2.6 The Ombudsman helps develop a range of responsible options to solve problems and facilitate discussion to identify the best options.

CONFIDENTIALITY

- 3.1 The Ombudsman holds all communications with those seeking assistance in strict confidence and takes all reasonable steps to safeguard confidentiality, including the following: The Ombudsman does not reveal, and must not be required to reveal, the identity of any individual contacting the Ombudsman Office, nor does the Ombudsman reveal information provided in confidence that could lead to the identification of any individual contacting the Ombudsman Office, without that individual's express permission, given in the course of informal discussions with the Ombudsman; the Ombudsman takes specific action related to an individual's issue only with the individual's express permission and only to the extent permitted, and even then at the sole discretion of the Ombudsman, unless such action can be taken in a way that safeguards the identity of the individual contacting the Ombudsman Office. The only exception to this privilege of confidentiality is where there appears to be imminent risk of serious harm, and where there is no other reasonable option. Whether this risk exists is a determination to be made by the Ombudsman.
- 3.2 Communications between the Ombudsman and others (made while the Ombudsman is acting in that capacity) are considered privileged. The privilege belongs to the Ombudsman and the Ombudsman Office, rather than to any party to an issue. Others cannot waive this privilege.
- 3.3 The Ombudsman does not testify in any formal process inside the organization and rarely testifies in any formal process outside of the organization regarding a visitor's contact with the Ombudsman or confidential information communicated to the Ombudsman, even if given permission or requested to do so. The Ombudsman may, however, provide general, non-confidential information about the Ombudsman Office or the Ombudsman profession.
- 3.4 If the Ombudsman pursues an issue systemically (e.g., provides feedback on trends, issues, policies and practices) the Ombudsman does so in a way that safeguards the identity of individuals.
- 3.5 The Ombudsman keeps no records containing identifying information on behalf of the organization.
- 3.6 The Ombudsman maintains information (e.g., notes, phone messages, appointment calendars) in a secure location and manner, protected from inspection by others (including management), and has a consistent and standard practice for the destruction of such information.
- 3.7 The Ombudsman prepares any data and/or reports in a manner that protects confidentiality.
- 3.8 Communications made to the ombudsman are not notice to the organization. The ombudsman neither acts as agent for, nor accepts notice on behalf of, the organization and shall not serve in a position or role that is designated by the organization as a place to receive notice on behalf of the organization. However, the ombudsman may refer individuals to the appropriate place where formal notice can be made.

INFORMALITY AND OTHER STANDARDS

- 4.1 The Ombudsman functions on an informal basis by such means as: listening, providing and receiving information, identifying and reframing issues, developing a range of responsible options, and – with permission and at Ombudsman discretion – engaging in informal third-party intervention. When possible, the Ombudsman helps people develop new ways to solve problems themselves.
- 4.2 The Ombudsman as an informal and off-the-record resource pursues resolution of concerns and looks into procedural irregularities and/or broader systemic problems when appropriate.
- 4.3 The Ombudsman does not make binding decisions, mandate policies, or formally adjudicate issues for the organization.
- 4.4 The Ombudsman supplements, but does not replace, any formal channels. Use of the Ombudsman Office is voluntary and is not a required step in any grievance process or organizational policy.
- 4.5 The Ombudsman does not participate in any formal investigative or adjudicative procedures. Formal investigations should be conducted by others. When a formal investigation is requested, the Ombudsman refers individuals to the appropriate office or individual.
- 4.6 The Ombudsman identifies trends, issues and concerns about policies and procedures, including potential future issues and concerns, without breaching confidentiality or anonymity, and provides recommendations for responsibly addressing them.
- 4.7 The Ombudsman acts in accordance with the IOA Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice, keeps professionally current by pursuing continuing education, and provides opportunities for staff to pursue professional training.
- 4.8 The Ombudsman endeavors to be worthy of the trust placed in the Ombudsman Office.

PI SIGMA ALPHA ADDRESS

Eduardo A. Gamarra,
Founder of Integrated Communications and Research

Thursday, January 9

6:30 – 7:30 pm

Las Olas Ballroom

Eduardo A. Gamarra is a professor of political science in the department of politics and international relations at Florida International University. He has been at FIU since 1986 where he also directed the Latin American and Caribbean Center (LACC) from 1994 to 2007. In February 2016 he was appointed founding director of the Latino Public Opinion Forum at the Stephen Green School of International and Public Affairs.

Throughout his career, Gamarra's research, teaching and consulting focus has been on the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean. The focus of his work includes security, democratization, drug trafficking and related illicit industries, political parties, campaigns/elections, public opinion, among other topics.

In his professional career Gamarra has served as a consultant for different branches of the US government on a variety of different projects, the majority with a focus on the Andes including Colombia. In addition, he has also consulted other multilateral agencies on Andean related projects that included Colombia. He has testified several times before the US Congress on US policy toward the region and has served as principal adviser on a range of policy issues to heads of state in countries such as Bolivia, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, and most recently Haiti. He also serves on a variety of academic and private sector boards around the Americas and is an elected member of Bolivia's National Academy of Sciences.

Gamarra is a frequent commentator on leading media outlets worldwide about Latin American and Caribbean and is the founder of Integrated Communications and Research (ICR), a consulting firm with an active portfolio of public and private sector clients throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

MINI- CONFERENCES

In 2020 the SPSA continues the innovation introduced seven years ago of hosting extended discussions organized around a single theme. These mini-conferences offer the opportunity for a small community of scholars to set aside time together within the larger meeting. A room is set aside for the time requested, in which between 3 and 8 regular sessions occur in succession. Whether these sessions are scheduled on a single day or straddle two days depends on the preferences of the organizer. Some are stand-alone sessions, while others are integrated with their related research section.

If you are interested in organizing a mini-conference to be held in conjunction with the 2021 SPSA meeting, contact Susan Haire (the 2021 Program Chair).
